- 5.4 The Audit Committee shall be provided with sufficient resources to discharge its duties.
- 5.5 Where there is disagreement between the Audit Committee and the Board, adequate time should be made available for discussion of the issue with a view to resolving the disagreement. Where any such disagreements cannot be resolved, the Audit Committee shall have the right to report the issue to the shareholders as part of the report on its activities in the annual report.

6. DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

It is the Audit Committee's primary duty to act independently from the executive directors to ensure that the interests of the shareholders are properly protected in relation to financial reporting, risk management and internal control and to act as the key representative body for overseeing the Company's relationship with the external auditors. The Audit Committee shall have the following duty and responsibilities: -

Review of the financial information of the Company

- 6.1 to monitor the integrity of the Company's financial statements and the annual report and accounts, half-year report and quarterly reports, and to review significant financial reporting judgments contained in them. In reviewing these reports before submission to the Board, the Audit Committee should focus particularly on: -
 - (a) any changes in accounting policies and practices;
 - (b) major judgmental areas;

- (c) significant adjustments resulting from audit;
- (d) the going concern assumptions and any qualifications;
- (e) compliance with accounting standards; and
- (f) compliance with the GEM Listing Rules and legal requirements in relation to financial reporting.

6.2 In regard to 6.1 above:-

- (a) members of the Audit Committee should liaise with the Board and senior management and the Audit Committee must meet, at least twice a year, with the Company's auditors; and
- (b) the Audit Committee should consider any significant or unusual items that are, or may need to be, reflected in the reports and accounts, it should give due consideration to any matters that have been raised by the Company's staff responsible for the accounting and financial report function, compliance officer or auditors.

6.3 Oversight of the Company's financial reporting system, risk management and internal control systems:

- (a) to review the Company's financial controls, and unless expressly addressed by a separate board risk committee, or by the Board itself, to review the Company's risk management and internal control systems;
- (b) to discuss the risk management and internal control systems with management to ensure that management has performed its duty to have effective systems. This discussion should include the adequacy of resources, staff qualifications and experience, training programmes and budget of the Company's accounting and financial reporting function;
- (c) to consider major investigation findings on risk management and internal control matters as delegated by the board or on its own initiative and management's response to these findings;
- (d) where an internal audit function exists, to ensure co-ordination between the internal and external auditors, and to ensure that the internal audit function is adequately resourced and has appropriate standing within the issuer, and to review and monitor its effectiveness. Where there is no internal audit function, the Audit Committee should consider annually whether there is a need for an internal audit function and make a recommendation to the Board, and the reasons for the absence of such a function should be explained in the relevant section of the annual report;

- (e) to review the Group's financial and accounting policies and practices;
- (f) to review the external auditor's management letter, any material queries raised by the auditor to management about accounting records, financial accounts or systems of control and management's response;
- (g) to ensure that the Board will provide a timely response to the issues raised in the external auditor's management letter;
- (h) to report to the Board on the matters set out in the Corporate Governance Code and Corporate Governance Report ; and
- (i) to consider other topics, as defined by the Board.

Relationship with the Company's auditors

- 6.4 to be primarily responsible for making recommendation to the Board on the appointment, reappointment and removal of the external auditor, and to approve the remuneration and terms of engagement of the external auditor, and any questions of its resignation or dismissal;
- 6.5 to review and monitor external auditor's independence and objectivity;
- 6.6 to review and monitor the effectiveness of the audit process in accordance with applicable standards and to discuss with the external auditor the nature and scope of the audit and reporting obligations before the audit commences;
- 6.7 to develop and implement policy on engaging an external auditor to supply non-audit services. For this purpose, "external auditor" shall include any entity that is under common control, ownership or management with the audit firm or any entity that a reasonable and informed third party knowing all relevant information would reasonably conclude to be part of the audit firm nationally or internationally;

- 6.8 to report to the board, identifying and making recommendations on any matters where action or improvement is needed; and
- 6.9 to act as the key representative body for overseeing the Company's relations with external auditor.

Relationship with the Company's employees

- 6.10 to review arrangements employees of the Company can use, in confidence, to raise concerns about possible improprieties in financial reporting internal control or other matters; and
- 6.11 to ensure that proper arrangements are in place for fair and independent investigation of these matters and for appropriate follow-up action.

7. REPORTING PROCEDURES

- 7.1 The secretary shall circulate the minutes of meetings and reports of the Committee to all members of the Board.
- 7.2 The Audit Committee shall report to the Board after each meeting.
